ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF BOISE

"For all to play their part in building the common good they must work, in the measure of their competence, to ensure that prisoners have the means to redeem themselves, both as individuals and in their relations to society." (Message for the Jubilee on Prisons, July 2000)

These words from Pope John Paul II remind all peoples of their responsibility to care for their brothers and sisters in need. This applies to all those who lack proper housing or food or access to medical care. It also applies to those who have committed crimes in our community, who have served their time, and who are now seeking to fully reintegrate into the community.

Through the lens of solidarity, we are reminded that those who commit crimes and are hurt by crime are not issues or problems. They are sisters and brothers, members of one human family. Even though we will not tolerate crime and violence that threatens the lives and dignity of others, we will also not give up on those who have lost their way. Called to see the face of Jesus in everyone, including both victims and offenders, we seek ways to rehabilitate, heal, and restore those who were lost to wholeness in the community.

Often the most difficult time for a former inmate is trying to reintegrate into his or her community. Fear, uncertainty, loneliness, and a general lack of awareness as to the services and support systems available to former inmates are often perceived as insurmountable obstacles to successful re-entry.

This resource manual is being provided as a tool to help former inmates achieve a positive return to society. It provides important information regarding a variety of state, community and faith-based services, support groups, training and employment counseling, as well as a listing of Catholic parishes across the state. It is my hope and prayer that this resource manual will assist you as you navigate the process of successful re-entry into our community. May God bless you on your journey!

Sincerely yours,

Most Reverend Michael P. Driscoll, M.S.W., D.D.
Roman Catholic Bishop of Idaho

A PRISON'S MINISTRY SPIRITUALITY

Jesus Christ, our Lord, was sent by his Father to save humankind. The Gospels portray Jesus as a loving and caring shepherd, with a heart filled with compassion for all and more particularly for those on the margins of society. He was anointed to cure our infirmities, set the captives free and bring good news to the poor (See Lk 4: 16-21).

Jesus humbly accepted to be one of us, to share our human nature in everything except sin. Indeed, if Jesus is able to help human beings, it is because he has become one of us; and this is why Jesus is not ashamed to call us brothers and sisters (Heb 2: 11-17; Philip 2: 7-8).

Furthermore, Jesus identifies with the "little ones;" that is, the simple, the uneducated, the poor, the outcast, the disfranchised, forgotten and underprivileged of society to the point of being considered himself a criminal and to be treated as one (Mk 15: 27-28; Philip 2, 8). The gospels tell us that Jesus was a prisoner (Mt 26, 47-50.55-56; Mk 14, 46; Lk 22, 53-54; Jn 17, 12-14).

Jesus' identification with those who suffer and those in need is permanent. Jesus identifies with those in prison (see Mt 25, 36). The invitation to take care of the incarcerated (see Heb 13, 3) is permanent too. "Poor and vulnerable people have a special place in the Catholic social teaching. A basic moral test of a society is how its more vulnerable members are faring... Our tradition calls us to put the needs of the poor and vulnerable first" ("A Century of Social Teaching: A Common Heritage, a Continuing Challenge, pp 6-7").

Prison ministry is unique. It is a ministry of careful listening and compassionate healing. By ministering to the incarcerated we can help individuals to discover forgiveness and reconciliation through God's love. Easily 90 percent of those in prison and jail will be released; thus we need to concentrate our efforts on helping them in the facilities. The Church's conviction plus the salvation of Christ means that no one is beyond redemption. There is hope in that a fellow prisoner, crucified next to him, was one of the first to join Jesus in heaven (Lk 23: 42-43).

The Catholic Prison's Ministry of the Diocese of Boise is under the inspiration and protection of the Lord Jesus, "the Divine Prisoner."

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Inspired by Gospel values, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, a Catholic lay organization, leads women and men to join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to those who are needy and suffering in the tradition of its founder, Blessed Frédéric Ozanam, and patron, St. Vincent de Paul.

As a reflection of the whole family of God, Members, who are known as Vincentians, are drawn from every ethnic and cultural background, age group, and economic level. Vincentians are united in an international society of charity by their spirit of poverty, humility and sharing, which is nourished by prayer and reflection, mutually supportive gatherings and adherence to a basic Rule.

Organized locally, Vincentians witness God's love by embracing all works of charity and justice. The Society collaborates with other people of good will in relieving need and addressing its causes, making no distinction in those served because, in them, Vincentians see the face of Christ. (www.svdpusa.org)

The following pages provide information about the services offered by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in Southwest and North Idaho. St. Vincent de Paul's thrift stores and services are provided throughout the entire state. More information about St. Vincent de Paul and its services in Idaho can be found in APPENDIX D – Food Banks & Charitable Programs as well as APPENDIX F – Celebrate Recovery (West Central Deanery). THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL APPENDIX C

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Southwest Idaho District Council, Inc.

All information below is from www.svdpid.org

Direct Aid:

Depending upon the availability of funds, assistance with gas, electric, & water bills is provided by the Society's Conferences throughout the year for individuals who are experiencing a crisis and who cannot afford their regular monthly payments. Rental assistance is yet another way Direct Aid helps. Those facing eviction have a place to turn for help. This assistance too depends on the funds available to the Conferences at the time of the request. The Society understands that when people fall on hard times, sometimes they simply need a helping hand. The Society is here to extend that hand - to give help and hope. To apply for assistance in Southwest Idaho, contact us by calling our Help Line: 208-331-2208. If you are outside of our area, you can find a St. Vincent de Paul Conference by contacting your local Catholic Parish and asking for the St. Vincent de Paul Help Line in your area.

Home Visits:

Through our Home Visits we work toward the prevention of homelessness by providing direct assistance. This assistance can be used to help with utility bills and rent when eviction is imminent. This direct approach to assistance gives the Home Visitor a unique perspective. This perspective allows us to offer additional assistance that may be needed, such as, food, clothing and furniture. The Vincentians share, with those in need, the simple fellowship of a listening ear and a caring heart. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul helps all in need. If you find yourself in need of assistance, please call our Help Line at 208-331-2208.

Bench Community Suppers:

By working together with several churches on the Boise Bench we are able to serve weekly meals at our Suppers to members of our community. These Suppers not only offer the opportunity to share a meal, they offer friendship and a chance for members of our community to socialize with their neighbors. The Bench Community Suppers are served free of charge. All are welcome. See APPENDIX D – Food Banks & Charitable programs to see if a Bench Supper is available in your city.

Food Pantries:

Food is given to anyone who walks in and no one is turned away. When our Food Pantry volunteers note a frequent visitor to the Food Pantry it signals that perhaps there is a need for further assistance or resource information. See APPENDIX D – Food Banks & Charitable programs to see if a St. Vincent de Paul food bank is available in your city.

Patient Assistance Program:

The Patient Assistance Program assists our neighbors in need obtain medication they are unable to afford. Application materials and enrollment in the Patient Assistance Program are free. We do not charge any fees associated with obtaining, completing or submitting an enrollment application.

Some of the criteria required for this program are:

Thrift Stores:

The Society's Thrift Stores play an important role in providing assistance to those in need. Through a staff of employees and volunteers we work to collect, evaluate and merchandise a variety of donated goods. This merchandise provides a low cost shopping alternative of quality goods to low income individuals and families. Those who cannot afford clothing, furniture and other household items are provided for through the Vincentian initiated referral system of the Home Visits. Vouchers are given and are redeemable at our Thrift Stores.

Community Action Partnership Association of Idaho

The pages that follow offer information about Community Action Partnership Association of Idaho (CAPAI). All the information was obtained on their website www.idahocommunityaction.org

CAPAI's Mission Statement:

The Community Action Partnership Association of Idaho fights the causes and conditions of poverty through building the capacity and effectiveness of its members.

The Promise of Community Action:

Community Action changes people's lives, embodies the spirit of hope, improves communities and makes America a better place to live. We care about the entire community, and we are dedicated to helping people help themselves and each other.

Community Action Partnership Programs

Weatherization Assistance Program (WAP) enables low-income families to permanently reduce their energy bills by making their homes more energy efficient. During the last 32 years, the U.S. Department of Energy's (DOE) Weatherization Assistance Program has provided weatherization services to more than 6.2 million low-income families.

Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) is a federally funded block grant that provides funding to help low income households make home heating more affordable, avoid disconnection of utility services during the winter, and maintain a warm, safe, and healthy environment for households with young children, the elderly, and the disabled. LIHEAP has been operating since 1982.

Community Service Block Grant (CSBG) program provides States with funds to lessen poverty in communities. The funds provide a range of services and activities to assist the needs of low-income individuals including the homeless, migrants and the elderly.

The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) is a federal program that helps improve the diets of low-income Americans, regardless of age, by providing them with emergency food and nutrition assistance at no cost. TEFAP plays a vital role in providing food assistance by supplementing other donated foods distributed by the emergency feeding organizations.

Idaho Telephone Service Assistance Program (ITSAP) a monthly discount off of your basic telephone service and help with the installation of a new phone for low-income households.

The pages that follow are from the Ex-Offenders Re-Entry Services: A Resource Guide for Ex-Offenders. The resource guide was created by the Department of Labor. For a complete guide please contact your local Department of Labor or visit <http://labor.idaho.gov/publications/ex-offender.pdf>

Welcome to the Idaho Department of Labor Ex-Offender Re-Entry Services

Welcome to the Idaho Department of Labor. The Ex-Offender Re-Entry Services guide has been designed to enhance and expand services to the ex-offender in Idaho, and assist you in your re-entry into the State's work force.

The Idaho Department of Labor is a leader in generating quality services and is focused on assisting you in becoming part of the skilled work force that serves as a foundation for strong communities with vibrant, diversified and expanding economies. We are committed to providing you access to comprehensive quality services and information. Our goal is to help you overcome any current barriers and provide you with the assistance and resources you need to find a job.

Take time to review this guide including the goals and the available resources to help you with your transition. Also, plan to stay in close contact with your Workforce Consultant so your job search will be far more productive.

GOALS

- To work with you and our community partners to assist you in effectively assimilating yourself back into the work force by helping you:
 - Register for work with the Idaho Department of Labor
 - Identify your personality style, workplace skills, workplace values, and careers of interest
 - Attend a job search workshop (not available in all offices) that covers all phases of conducting an effective job search
 - Meet one-on-one with a trained Department of Labor Workforce Consultant who will help guide you through the process of finding a job
 - Locate supportive services through our network of local social service agencies and organizations.

JOB RESOURCES

- Local and statewide job listings
- Job search assistance, including search tips, creating a resume, and much more
- Job market information
- Job search workshops (not available at all offices)
- Career guidance
- Connections to many other community and government resources

Again, we welcome you to the Idaho Department of Labor and look forward to working with you to make your job search more effective!

Helpful Tips for Re-Employment

1. DON'T GO IT ALONE

There is help within the community. The community wants you to be successful. REACH OUT FOR HELP at the following places:

- a. Idaho Department of Labor local offices
- b. Community Corrections Adult Probation and Parole Offices (Idaho Department of Corrections)
- c. Idaho Division of Vocational Rehabilitation
- d. Idaho Department of Health and Welfare
- e. Faith and Community-Based Agencies (like the Boise Rescue Mission)

2. BE REALISTIC ABOUT THE TYPE OF EMPLOYMENT YOU CAN OBTAIN

Your first job after your release does not have to be your ideal job. Be prepared to build or rebuild your employment history. Accept that based on the felony conviction certain jobs may not be available to you, at least for now. However, our resources are structured to assist in finding a job that is a good match for you. Past ex-offenders have had success as:

- a. Retail salespersons
- b. Warehouse workers
- c. Laundry and dry-cleaning workers
- d. Helpers trade assistants
- e. Construction laborers
- f. Wait staff
- g. Food preparation and serving-related persons
- h. Maids and housekeeping cleaners
- i. Janitors

3. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF RESOURCES TO MARKET YOURSELF TO EMPLOYERS

If you completed a training program while you were incarcerated, make sure you let the employer know. Some areas in Idaho have different resources, but the following are available statewide:

- a. One-on-one consulting with a Workforce Consultant
- b. Job search workshops or seminars
- c. Potential training opportunity determined on a case-by-case basis
- d. Federal bonding
- e. Work Opportunity Tax Credit for employers

4. LET THE EMPLOYER KNOW UP FRONT ABOUT YOUR CONVICTION

Don't hesitate to disclose this information. Once it is out in the open, you can focus on telling the employer your strengths and your goals for the future. The employer's role is to pay you for your work, not to discuss your problems. Focus on talking about what you can add to the business. On an interview:

- a. Speak clearly
- b. Cover tattoos and remove body piercings
- c. Don't look at your watch
- d. Dress appropriately. Dress one step above how you would expect others to dress for the interview.

Celebrate Recovery

Celebrate Recovery is a Christian centered recovery program based on the 12-Steps of AA and the 8 Beatitudes. It is for people who have experienced many of life's hurts, bad habits, and hang-ups. A hurt, habit, or hang-up is something that hinders our walk with God and with each other. The Celebrate Recovery program was written by pastors Rick Warren (who wrote the book The Purpose Driven Life) and John Baker.

All of life's hurts, habits, and hang-ups are addressed through the curriculum used in a group format. Groups may include: alcohol and drug addictions, adult children of alcoholics, anger groups, co-dependency, eating problems, sexual addictions such as pornography, food addictions, financial recovery, love and relationships addictions, and those who have experienced sexual, physical, or emotional abuse.

The following pages list the locations, times, and contact information for Celebrate Recovery meetings throughout the state of Idaho.
